

The Utah State Office of Education Special Education Services Unit
The Center for Technical Assistance for Excellence in Special Education (TAESE)
The Center for Persons with Disabilities at Utah State University

THE ANNUAL UTAH INSTITUTE ON SPECIAL EDUCATION LAW

August 2–3, 2010

Ogden Eccles Conference Center, Ogden, Utah

This annual conference is designed for administrators, educators, service providers, parents, families, and others responsible for the implementation of IDEA 2004 and the accompanying regulations.

Each participant registering by the deadline will receive a binder containing all of the conference materials. Late registration will be accepted, room permitting but materials will be available by CD only.

This year, in order to accommodate the OSEP Leadership Conference in Washington D.C., our conference dates have necessarily been changed to Monday, August 2nd, Tuesday, August 3rd. The conference will be held at the Eccles Conference Center in Ogden.

Topics

- What's Happening in D.C.
- LRE
- Manifestation Determinations and Suspension/Expulsion
- Seclusion and Restraint
- Secondary Transition
- Developing Legally Compliant IEPs to provide FAPE
- Emerging 504 Issues

- Cases involving Paraeducators
- Preschool Issues
- Transportation Issues
- Tips to Avoid Disputes
- USDB Updates
- Bullying
- The Role of School Nurses, Utah's Nurse Practices Act and recent changes
- SLD Eligibility
- Ethics for Educators
- Autism

Registration is available
May 10, 2010 on line at www.taese.net

Confirmed Speakers

- Nancy Reder
- Dave Richards
- Jose Martin
- Jim Walsh
- Lenore Knudtson
- Julie Weatherly
- Dewey Cornell

